Candidate Responsibilities

- Candidates must hold a current first aid at work certificate. Please send photocopy with your application.

What the training programme involves.

- 100% commitment is essential.
- All sessions must be attended to allow for required contact time.
- Commitment to non contact time also needs to be considered.
- To bring to the attention of the Tutor at the earliest opportunity any issues which may have a detrimental effect upon progress and achievement.
- To inform the Tutor of any disability or medical reasons which may require special arrangements to be made relating to the suitability of the learning programme provided and/or the assessment requirements.

Assessment Theoretical knowledge and practical skills will be assessed by means of continual assessment throughout the course. Two independent assessors will attend on the final day. There will be a short, individual, verbal, question and answer session followed by an assessment of life support skills and management of a simulated first aid incident. There is no final written exam.

Results The candidates will be required to pass in all aspects of the course. Results will be communicated to the candidates by Independent Assessors.

Any further details will be sent with your confirmation of a place.
